

[1-7] Choose the expression that is NOT grammatically correct.

1. (A)In the early 1980s about 9 (B)million bikes (C)were sold (D)annual in the country.
2. (A)Since elephants have (B)little enemies (C)to fear, they (D)are usually peaceful and easygoing.
3. I (A)wish I (B)had not signed that contract (C)with first (D)having consulted my lawyer.
4. We have not yet (A)received your report (B)for the third quarter and are unable to complete (C)our analysis of corporate (D)performing.
5. Natural gas (A)is composed of hydrocarbon molecules (B)that breaks (C)apart into hydrogen and carbon atoms (D)when heated.
6. Scientists, like other people, (A)are pleased to have their own ideas (B)confirmed. So (C)I was gratified by a report which (D)was appeared in the August 1963 issue of the JBAA.
7. The annals of natural history (A)contain many (B)astonished examples of the ability of animals to (C)find their way home after (D)making distant journeys.

[8-10] Select the one (A, B, C, or D) that best completes the sentence.

8. As a young man, _____ went to one of the finest art schools in the United States.
(A) was Henry Tanner (B) Henry Tanner
(C) and Henry Tanner (D) Henry Tanner who
9. Wyoming, _____ by short grass and sagebrush, is sliced through diagonally by the Rocky Mountains.
(A) to dominate (B) dominating
(C) dominated (D) was dominated
10. South African termites eat _____ that grows at exactly 20 degrees Celsius.
(A) a certain only fungus (B) only certain a fungus
(C) only a certain fungus (D) a fungus only certain